CABMEN MUST DRIVE YOU IN PARK AT $1 AN HOUR

Corporation Counsel Rives, in an Opinion to the Bureau of Licenses, Defines the Law by Which the Extortion of New York's Hackmen May be Stopped.

I accordingly advise you that here is no statute or ordisance which gives the right to public hackman standing in the public streets of New York mengaged to refuse to carry an orderly person, upon request, by time charge at the rate of $1 per hour.-From an opinion by Corporation Counsel practised by cabmen, especially those engaged for a pleasure drive through Contral Park or Riverside Drive. This action is the immediate outcome of The Evening World's protest against the piratical practices which the decision is designed to meet.

Deputy Chief James D. Merriman, of the Bureau of Licenses, has already fined a number of offending cabmen against whom complaints were made to him. In some of the cases brought to his attention the charge imposed for a drive around Central Park was $2 and $3 and oftentimes as high as $4, although the time occupied was less than tone hour.

The Corporation Counsel declares that the person hiring the cab by time has the right to demand that he shall be driven through the park at the rate of $1 and hour.
